

Kings Of Convenience - Love Is No Big Truth

Tom: A

Dbm Abm
 All I do is sleep all day, and think of you a memory of the cushion life I'm clinging to the image of a mutual one, our haven

Dbm Gbm Abm
 the sombre chords of our song, the fading

Dbm
 love is no big truth

E A
 driven by our genes, we are simple selfish beings a symphony that's you joyously awaking the ignorant and sleeping

Dbm Abm Gbm ->Abm

Passion and its brother hate, they come and go could easily be made to stay for longer though many people play this game so willingly do I have to be like them, or be lonely?

love is no big truth
 a symphony that's you
 joyously awaking the ignorant and sleeping

Abm Gbm Dbm
 Another view of what there is to it, getting me through it

Dbm E A
 I'll never need it again
