

Kings Of Leon - Beautiful War

Tom: A
Intro: A

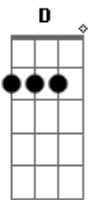

Bite your tongue^A
Don't make a scene, dear^D
Everybody's been here least once before^A
We've been here more^A
Your heart breaks^A
Rolls down the window^D
I've seen it all go, come back around^A
And I've heard the sound^E
The tip of your tongue^D
The top of your lungs is doing my head in^A
I say, "Love, love don't mean nothing^D
Unless there's something worth fighting for."^A
It's a beautiful war^A
When I hold^D
The warmth of your body^A
There is nobody that I'd rather hold^E
Shattered and cold

The tip of your tongue^D
The top of your lungs is making me crazy^A
I say, "Love, love don't mean nothing^D
Unless there's something worth fighting for."^A
It's a beautiful war
I say, "Love, love - it don't mean nothing^D
unless there's something worth fighting for."^A
It's a beautiful war
It's a beautiful war^A
It's a beautiful war^{A E D}
I say, "Love, love..."^A
I say, "Love, love don't mean nothing^D
unless there's something worth fighting for."^A
I say, "Love, love don't mean nothing^D
unless there's something worth fighting for."^A
It's a beautiful war
It's a beautiful war
It's a beautiful war
It's a beautiful war
