

Kiss - Any Way You Slice It

Tom: G

Rhythm Fig. 7 (Let ring)

Standard tuning

Comments: This is basically two riffs, the first in a variety of guises. Throw in some fills, a solo and a blues turnaround ending and there's a song for you. I am a bit unsure about the penultimate chord though. I've put down what I consider to be the most reasonable choice but I just don't know.
