 You're sittin' in your seat
 E B
 And then you stand and clutch your breast

Our music drives you wild along with the rest
 You watch me singing this song
 You see what my mouth can do
 And you wish you were the one I was doing it to
 And you watch me playin' guitar
 And you feel what my fingers can do
 And you wish you were the one I was doing it to
 Well, listen
 You've got great expectations
 You've got great expectations
 You're dying to be seen
 And you wave and call my name

But in the day it seems that I'm a million miles away
 You watch me beatin' my drum
 And you know what my hands can do
 And you wish you were the one I was doing it to
 Well, listen
 You've got great expectations
 You've got great expectations
 You've got great expectations
 Then you feels these eyes from the stage
 And you see me staring at you
 And you hear between the lines, my voice is calling to you
 Well, listen
 You've got great expectations
 You've got great expectations
 You've got great expectations, do you want to play the role
 You've got great expectations, you'd even sell me your soul
 You've got great expectations
 You've got great expectations
 You've got great expectations, do you want to play the role
 You've got great expectations, you'd even sell me your soul
 You've got great expectations, as long as you can play the role
 You've got great expectations
