G
Watch your step or you might fall

Em
You act like you're a know-it-all

C D G
Yeah I used to do that, I used to be like that, I'm still a bit like that

G
You might think you found the one

Em
Until your heart gets ripped and torn

C D G
Yeah I used to feel bad, I used to feel like that, still feel a bit like that

C D G
But I'm not searching for the answer

C D G
I'm not looking for the truth

C D G
I'm just talking through a speaker

C D G
Because that's all that I have ever learned to do

G
Use your mind and make it talk

Em

Cause in this world it's all you got

C D G
And we all fall down from the highest clouds to the lowest ground

Loneliness is worst of all

Em
When you got no one else to call

C D G
Feeling kind of sad when the times are bad, the times are getting bad

C D G
But I'm not searching for the answer

C D G
I'm not looking for the truth

C D G
I'm just talking through a speaker

C D G
Because that's all that I have ever learned to do

G
So watch your step or you might fall

Em
You act like you're a know-it-all

C D G
Yeah I used to do that, I used to be like that, I'm still a bit like that
