

Kris Kristofferson - Nobody Wins

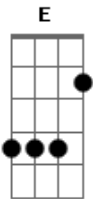

tom:
 Any more it doesn't matter
 Who's right or wrong
 We've been injuring each other
 For much too long
 And it's too late to try to save
 What might have been
 It's over
 Nobody wins
 Make believin in forever
 Is just a lie
 And it seems a little sadder
 Each time we try

'Cause it's a shame to make
 The same mistakes again
 And again
 It's over
 Nobody wins
 We've gone too far too long
 Too far apart
 The lovin' was easy
 It's the livin' that's hard
 And there's no need to stay and see
 The way it ends
 It's over
 Nobody wins
