

Lacuna Coil - This is My Dream

Tom: G

Taken from Lacuna Coil's self-titled EP

Tuning: E A D G B E

Intro: and Verse:

This is the part right after the bass interlude. Gtr. 1 plays this while Gtr. 2 wails the full chords. A third guitar plays a B (7th fret high E) except when the Gb chord is being played, where it plays an Bb (6th fret high E).

Gtr. 2 Versechorus: This part comes in quietly when Cristina starts singing. I believe a flanger effect is used. It then turns really heavy for the chorus.
