 Everybody's got to love each other
 C E Am
 Stop throwin' stones at your sisters and your brothers
 G E Am G D
 Man, it wasn't that long ago we were all living in the jungle
 G G
 So why do we gotta put each other down
 G G
 When there's more than enough love to g-g-go around?

 Come to mama
 Am
 Tell me who hurt ya
 F
 There's gonna be no future
 G
 If we don't figure this out

[Verse 2]

C E Am
 Dude in a lab coat and a man of God
 C E Am
 Fought over prisms and a forty-day flood
 G E Am G D
 Well, I say rainbows did more than they've ever done
 G G
 So why do we gotta fight over ideas?
 G G
 We're talkin' the same old shit after all of these years

[Chorus]

C
 Come to mama
 Am
 Tell me who hurt ya
 F
 There's gonna be no future

G
 If we don't figure this out
 C
 Oh, come tomorrow
 Am
 Who are you gonna follow?
 F
 There's gonna be no future
 G
 If we don't figure this out

[Bridge]

C E Am
 Psychic guru catches minnows in the harbor
 C E Am
 Everyone tells him he should work a little harder
 G E Am
 G D
 They all tell you that freedom must be bought But, baby, he's already caught them
 G G
 So why do we gotta tell each other how to live?
 G G
 The only prisons that exist are ones we put each other in

[Chorus]

C
 Come to mama
 Am
 Tell me who hurt ya
 F
 There's gonna be no future
 G
 If we don't figure this out
 C
 Oh, come tomorrow
 Am
 Who are you gonna follow?
 F
 There's gonna be no future
 G
 If we don't figure this out
