

Lamb - Wise Enough

tom: [Primeira Parte] Ε Dbm Gbm I had a dream that all of time was running dry Dbm E And life was like a comet falling from the sky Gbm E Dbm I woke so frightened in the dawning, oh so clear Dbm How precious is the time we have here [Refrão] Gbm Are we not wise enough to give all we are? Surely we're bright enough to outshine the stars Gbm D The human kind gets so lost in finding its way D Gbm E But we have a chance to make a difference til our dying day (Gbm E Dbm D) [Segunda Parte] And you might pray to God Or say it's destiny But I think we are just hiding

All that we can be [Refrão] Are we not wise enough to give all we are? Gbm Surely we're bright enough to outshine the stars D Gbm The human kind gets so lost in finding its way D Gbm But we have a chance to make a difference til our dying day [Ponte] All I'm really asking is: what are we doing here? Are we just killing time? Just living year to year? E Gbm In this big world, no one else can play our part Е Ain't it time to just wake up and give it all [Refrão] Are we not wise enough to give all we are? Gbm Surely we're bright enough to outshine the stars D Gbm The human kind gets so lost in finding its way D Gbm E But we have a chance to make a difference til our dying day

Gbm We have a chance to make a difference til our dying day

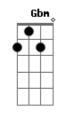

We have a chance to make a difference til our dying day
