

Lana Condor - No Way (feat. Anthony de La Torre)

tom:

I don't want to like you
 But there's no one like you
 We said goodbye too many times
 Who we lying to
 Back in your bed
 Resting my head
 Maybe I'm better with you
 I don't want to like you
 But there's no one like you
 When you look like that Covered in gold
 With the sunlight on you
 I get pulled right back, ooh
 No way no way
 No way no way
 I'm letting you slip
 Away away
 Away away
 Whatever this is
 I'm feeling too much
 To let go and let you become
 A chance I didn't take
 No way no way no way
 No way no
 I wish I could read you
 I'm dying to reach through
 All of the dirt casual hurt
 When I'm needing you
 Back in your bed
 Again and again
 Say we'r? just friends
 You mess with my head

Acordes

I don't want to lik? you but
 I like you
 No way no way
 No way no way
 I'm letting you slip
 Away away
 Away away
 Whatever this is
 I'm feeling too much
 To let go and let you become
 A chance I didn't take
 No way no way no way
 No way no way
 Call me baby
 I think I could get used to
 The way you make me
 Feel like there's something to lose
 Call me baby
 Do you feel the way that I do
 I don't want to lik? you but
 I like you
 No way no way
 No way no way
 I'm letting you slip
 Away away
 Away away
 Whatever this is
 I'm feeling too much
 To let go and let you become
 A chance I didn't take
 No way no
