

Lana Del Rey - Beautiful People (Demo)

tom:
Intro: F

Green are the color of the eyes of the man I love
He's hard to take and hard to touch
And green is the color of the sea in the early month
Of mid July, te amo much

You get so mad when I complain
You think I'm crazy but I hear them talk they say my name
They're fucking tired of

These beautiful people with beautiful problems, yeah
Beautiful people and God knows I've got them
She wants to die (lie-la-lie)
And she should fucking try (lie-la-lie)

Red is the color of your mouth when you drink rum punch
You like to lie in yellow Sun
And red are the color of your eyes when you drink too much

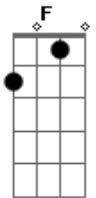

You pack your place, you pack a punch
You get so tied to me to stop
I'm ruining our love
But I walk by I hear them talk
They're fucking tired of

All these beautiful people with beautiful problems, yeah
Beautiful people and God knows I've got them
She wants to die (lie-la-lie)
And she should fucking try (lie-la-lie)

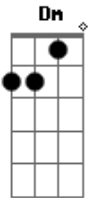

She wants to die (I can tell you what I really want)
Lie-la-lie (I can tell you what I really want)
And she should fucking try (I can tell you what I really want)
Lie-la-lie (I can tell you what I really want)

All these beautiful people with beautiful problems, yeah
Beautiful people and God knows I've got them
Beautiful people with beautiful problems
Beautiful people with beautiful problems
