Cm Cm
"It's dark but just a game"
Cm Cm Ab
That's what he would say to me
Cm Cm
The faces aren't the same
Cm Ab
But their stories all end tragically

Cm
(Sweet, w-whatever, baby)
Cm
And that's the price of fame
Cm Ab
A tale as old as time, you'd be
Cm
(Sweet, w-whatever, baby)

Cm
A pretty little fool
Cm
To think exceptions to the rule
Cm
Just walk around
Ab7
Like you and me this way

Cm Cm
But life is sweet, w-whatever, baby
Cm
You gotta take them for what they've got
G
And while the whole world is crazy
C
We're getting high in the parking lot

[Refrão]

Bb Am
We keep changing all the time
E7 F
The best ones lost their minds
G C
So I'm not gonna change

Bb Am
I'll stay the same
E7 F
No rose left on the vines
G Ab Am
Don't even want what's mine
Am F E7
Much less the fame
F G Am Am
It's dark but just a game
F G C

It's dark but just a game
(C G Am F)
(C G Ab)
(Am F)

[Segunda Parte]

Cm Cm
It's dark but just a game
Cm Ab
So play it like a symphony
Cm Cm
You know our love's the same
Cm Ab
They'll both go down in infamy
Cm Cm
I was a pretty little thing
Cm
And got a lot to sing, but
Ab7
Nothing came for me the one but pain
Cm
But fuck it

Cm
Life is sweet, w-whatever, baby
Cm
Don't ever think it's not
G
While the whole world is crazy
We're making out in the parking lot

[Refrão]

Bb Am
We keep changing all the time
