 There's a certain point A
 The body can't come back from D

 The turn of the mouth D
 The depth that the chest cavity takes D
 Chuck was there for three out of three A
 I was there for the third 'cause I couldn't be D
 There for the one who was closest to me E
 But I can't say I'd run when things get hard D
 It's just that I don't trust myself with my heart E
 But I've had to let it break a little more D
 'Cause they say that's what it's for Gbm
 That's how the light shines in D E
 That's how the light shines in Gbm
 That's how the light gets in D E D
 (A G)
 So everyone was there, they were standing and laughing D E
 And I'm on the side with my tears streaming down A Abm Gbm E
 There's something about the clutch of the wrist D E
 He thought mine was his to carve into his mouth A Abm Gbm E
 We've only got hours D
 And I just can't stop crying 'cause all of the ways D E

 I'm at the Roadrunner Café D

 That's how the light gets in D E
 That's how the light gets in D
 That's how the light gets in Gbm E
 Think by the 3rd of March, I was cracked open D E

 There's a name for it in Japanese, it's kintsugi Gbm E D E
 They sang folk songs from the 40s A Abm Gbm
 Even the fourteen-year old knew Froggie Came A-Courtin' E
 How do my blood relatives know all of these songs? A Abm
 I don't know anyone left to know songs that I sing D E
 (Gbm E)
 That's how the light gets in D E
 That's how the light gets in G D
 (D E)
 But, daddy, I miss them A
 I'm at the Roadrunner Café D
 Probably running away from the feelings today Dbm
 In the snow-capped mountains of the desert E Gbm
 Daddy, I miss them Gbm
 I'm in the mountains D
 Probably running away, I've been meaning to say Dbm
 That there's nothing to do except know that this is E Gbm
 How the light gets in Gbm
 Like cracking, the light gets in E D

 It's how the light gets in
