

Larissa Colliver - Feel Your Love Again (feat. Redeeming Rebels)

tom:
 Intro: Bb Cm7 Ab2
 Bb Cm7 Ab2

Lord, I want to feel your love again inside my heart
 Lord, I want to hear your voice again the way I used to

All I really know is that I can't live without you
 Oh, I'm beginning to see it now
 'Cause my eyes are on you

I want to love You and honor you
 I want to be with you, my Lord
 Forevermore, I surrender to you

You're the reason I breathe
 And I want to feel your love again

Bb Cm7 Ab
 Oh oh oh

All I really know is that I can't live without you
 Oh, I'm beginning to see it now
 'Cause my eyes

All I really know is that I can't live without you
 Oh, I'm beginning to see it now
 'Cause my eyes are on you

I want to love you and honor you
 I want to be with you, my Lord
 Forevermore, I surrender to you
 You're the reason I breathe
 And I want to feel

I want to love you and honor you
 I want to be with you, my Lord
 Forevermore, I surrender to you
 You're the reason I breathe
 And I want to feel your love again

You've found me, you've found me

You say: Don't be afraid
 I'm not gonna back down 'cause You
 Have called me, have called me

Not gonna walk away
 You have drawn me into your arms
 You've found me, you've found me

You say: Don't be afraid
 I'm not gonna back down 'cause You
 Have called me, have called me

Not gonna walk away from you
 Not gonna walk away from you
 (Not gonna walk away from you)

I want to love you and honor you
 I want to be with you, my Lord
 Forevermore, I surrender to you
 You're the reason I breathe

And I want to feel
 I want to love you and honor you
 I want to be with you, my Lord
 Forevermore, I surrender to you
 You're the reason I breathe

And I want to feel your love again
