

Laura Marling - What He Wrote

tom:

Am

Am G C

Forgive me Hera

Dm C

I cannot stay

He cut out my tongue

There is nothing to save

Am G C

Love me, oh lord

Dm C

He threw me away

He laughed at my sins

In his arms I must stay

Am G

He wrote

F G

I'm broke

Am G Am

Please send for me

Am G

But I'm broken too

F G

And spoken for

Am G Am

Do not tempt me

Am G C

Her skin is white

And I'm light as the sun

So holy light shines on the things you have done

F G E Am

So I asked him how he became this man

F G E Am

How did he learn to hold fruit in his hands?

C C Dm

And where is the lamb that gave your name?

C G Am

He had to leave, though I begged him to stay

F G E Am

Left me alone when I needed the light

F G E Am

Fell to my knees, and I wept for my life

C Dm

If he had stayed of stayed, you might understand

C G

If he had of stayed, you never would have taken my hand

Am G

He wrote

F G

I'm low

Am G Am

Please send for me

Am G

But I'm broken too

F G

And spoken for

Am G Am

Do not tempt me

C Dm

And where is the lamb that gave your name?

C G Am

He had to leave, though I begged him to stay

F G E Am

Begged him to stay in my cold wooden grip

F G E Am

Begged him to stay by the light of this ship

C Dm

Me fighting him, fighting light, fighting dawn

C G Am

And the waves came and stole him and took him to war

Am G

He wrote

F G

I'm low

Am G Am

Please send for me

Am G

But I'm broken too

F G

And spoken for

Am G Am

Do not tempt me

Am G C

Forgive me Hera

Dm C

I cannot stay

He cut out my tongue

There is nothing to save

Am G C

Love me, oh lord

Dm C

He threw me away

He laughed at my sins

In his arms I must stay

Am G

We write

F G

That's all right

Am G Am

I miss his smell

Am G

We speak

F G

When spoken to

Am G Am

And that suits us well

Am G Am

That suits us well

Am G Am

That suits me well
