

Laura Pausini - No River Is Wilder

Tom: C

All of the wind
 That I thought I wanted
 To run away
 Out of my soul
 Finally drags me
 Finally saves me
 Right in time my heart can feel you
 Next to me

Look and you'll see
 That love is so cruel
 But you come to stay
 And take control
 You finally embrace me
 You finally save me
 Right in time my eyes can see you
 Next to me
 Next to me

No river is wilder
 Than my philosophy
 Hold me, then I'll be
 A shelter for you
 I won't let you doubt again
 Because the truth
 Is what I give
 Come back to see
 Your love for me
 Promise me to be
 The promise that I need

All of the wings
 That I thought were bonded

That threw away
 My whole damn world
 Finally fly me
 And finally save me
 Right in time my heart can feel you
 Next to me
 Just next to me

No river is wilder
 Than my philosophy
 Catch me, then I'll be
 A shelter for you
 I'll let the dream come true
 Because the truth
 Is what I mean
 Come back to see
 Your love for me

No river is wilder
 No reason is brighter

I won't let you doubt again
 Because the truth
 Is what I give
 Come back to see
 Your love for me
 Promise me to be
 The promise that I need

All of the love
 That I thought I missed out
 Has found its way
 To warm the cold
 Finally wants me
 And finally saves me
 Right in time my soul will love you
 Eternally
