

Lauren Daigle - Inevitable

tom:

Bb

I can feel when my mind
Starts to creep and to doubt
On the days when the strength
In my heart's giving out

There's a light but it hides
From me deep in the cloud
There's a voice that I need
But I don't hear a sound

Ever running to what I can't see
Fighting out of all my unbelief
Father, even in my song will be

I know You will always carry me
It's inevitable
Set Your promise
To play on repeat in my head
When You meet my anxiety, put it to death

Ever running to what I can't see
Fighting out of all my unbelief
Father, even in my song will be
I know You will always carry me

It's inevitable
It's inevitable
It's inevitable
It's inevitable
