

LAUV - The Other

Tom: G

[Verse 1]

Em D C G
 Like a spotlight the water hits me
 Em D C G
 Ran it extra cold to shake the words from my mouth
 Em D C G
 Though I know that no one's listening
 Em D C G
 I nervously rehearse for when you're around
 Em D C G
 And I keep waiting like you might change my mind

[Chorus]

Em D C G
 Who wrote the book on goodbye?
 Em D C G
 There's never been a way to make this easy
 Em D C G
 When there's nothing quite wrong but it don't feel right
 Em D C G
 Either your head or your heart, you set the other on fire

[Verse 2]

Em D C G
 Back and forth now I'm feelin' guilty
 Em D C G
 Cause I just can't stop this pendulum in my head
 Em D C G
 Though I know that our time is ending
 Em D C G
 I'd rather lay forever right in this bed
 Em D C G
 And I keep waiting like, you might change my mind
 C G
 Give me one more night

[Chorus]

Em D C G
 Who wrote the book on goodbye?
 Em D C G
 There's never been a way to make this easy
 Em D C G
 When there's nothing quite wrong but it don't feel right
 Em D C G
 Either your head or your heart, you set the other on fire

[Bridge]

D Em
 We fell from the peak
 C D
 And the stars, they broke their code
 Em
 I'm trying to forget
 C D
 How I landed on this road
 Em
 I'm caught in between
 C D
 What I wish and what I know
 When they say that you just know

no one (knows x4)
 no one (knows x4)

[Chorus]

Em D C G
 Who wrote the book on goodbye?
 Em D C G
 There's never been a way to make this easy
 Em D C G
 When there's nothing quite wrong but it don't feel right
 Em D C G
 Either your head or your heart, you set the other on fire
