

Leanna Firestone - Happy For you / Method Acting (Medley)

Ab

[Primeira Parte]

My dad told me he hoped that he lived long enough

To see me happy again

I didn't know what to say to that

So all I said back was, "yeah, me too."

I wanna smile without hesitations

Laugh without any reservations

Say I'm fine and mean it

I wanna be happy like I know I should be

I'm sorry truly my sadness makes you sad too

And since I can't happy for me

I wanna be happy for you

[Segunda Parte]

People tell me I look happier

It feels like a lie

Maybe I'm just better at hiding it now

Or maybe this is what healing feels like

[Pré-Refrão]

Maybe all that it is is not knowing what it is

Until you do it

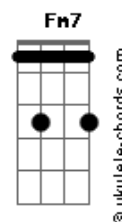

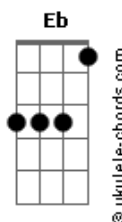

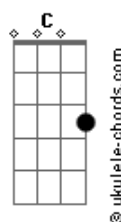

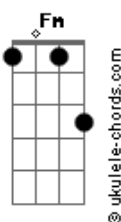

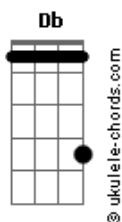

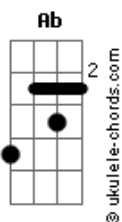

I was hurting so bad for so long

And then I wasn't before I knew it

[Refrão]

And there was no--- graduation day

Acordes

No clear finish line
Just me working at healing my hurting
And wondering if I'll be method acting for the rest of my life

[Segunda Parte]

People tell me I look happier

And now I think I do too

Either that or I'm a damn good actor

Cause even I've got myself fooled

[Pré-Refrão]

At some point, I stopped having to pretend to be fine

I don't know when it happened

But someday method acting turned into real life

[Refrão]

And there was no--- graduation day

I don't know and I don't care where I crossed the finish line

Because healing is learning that healing from hurting

Was only a matter of time

[Final]

It was only a matter of

It was only a matter of

It was only a matter of

It was only a matter of

It was only a matter of

It was only a matter of

It was only a matter of

It was only a matter of

It was only a matter of

It was only a matter of

It was only ever a matter of time
