

Legend Seven - First Love

Tom: F

INT: C G F C G C

When the road gets hard, and the winds blow colder

I know you'll be there by my side

When the world comes down, heavy on my shoulders

I know you'll be there by my side

Image no one else, could ever understand my longing
But I will bear my soul, and oh, Lord, you comfort me

Forever you're been my friend, faithful until the end

I'll always remember when, first love

Today there's a place to hide, you listen to every cry

Forever you will be my first love

On a lonely day, looking out my windows

Reaching the deepest part of me

Through a rain of tears, fall on my pillow

You touched the deepest part of me

Uoooooh, HoW could I walk away, and lose the One who loved me first?

You gave me ears to hear, oh Lord, to know your voice

Forever you're been my friend, faithful until the end

I'll always remember when, first love

Oh Today there's a place to hide, you listen to every cry

Forever you will be my first love

So many idols come, they try to steal away

The seeds You've sown in me

Lord, shield my soul, your strenght is mine

solo F C Am Bb C F

When the road gets hard, and the winds blow colder

I know You'll be there by my side

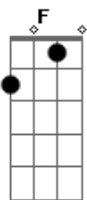

Forever you're been my friend, faithful until the end

I'll always remember when, first love

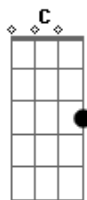

Today there's a place to hide, you listen to every cry

Forever you will be my first love, first love
