Bb   C   F   G
The day they found me, I hadn't yet been played
Bb   C   F   G
Inside my workshop behind the old arcade
Bb   C
Electric desires
          F   G
Had unraveled all my wires
Bb   C   F   G
Now I'm in the box for safekeeping
Bb   C   F   G
The news reporters reported that I died
Bb   C   F   G
But all my organs were living on inside
Bb   C
Circuit board to brain
        F   G
With two lungs collecting change
Bb   C   F   G
One big human heart gently beeping

Bb   C   F   G
You can't win me, I can't be beat
Bb   C   A   F
I won't hurt you, unless you cheat
Bb   C   F   G
You can't see me behind the screen
Bb   C   A   F
I'm half human and half machine

Bb   C   F   G
Thank God for business, they let me take the floor
Bb   C   F   G
I stood so proudly, like I was going to war
Bb   C   F   G
Players soon appeared, and I quickly was revered
Bb   C   F   G
This must be what love would have felt like
Bb   C   F   G

Such dedication, they came from miles away
Bb   C   F   G
With eyes so piercing, they'd wait their turn to play
Bb   C   F   G
Perfect patient lines, because I was in their minds
Bb   C   F   C   Dm
I could do whatever I felt like (Whatever I felt like)

Bb   C   F   G
You can't win me, I can't be beat
Bb   C   A   F
I won't hurt you, unless you cheat
Bb   C   F   G
You can't see me behind the screen
Bb   C   A   F
I'm half human and half machine

Dm   G
I'm happy for years and years
    Dm   G   C
And only eaten the occasional maintenance man
                      F
Only driving a few kids to madness
C   F   A
Maybe they were predisposed to madness, who knows?
                Em
I only want to have fun
A   Em
But now they're telling me my days here are done
F   G
Cause there's a little tiny box they make in Japan
F   G
And pretty soon it's gonna fit in your hand
Bb   C   F   G
It's getting lonely, it's getting hard to breathe
Bb   C   F   G
The arcade's empty, I think it's Christmas Eve
Bb   C   F   G
Someone's broken in, now they're painting on my skin
Bb   C   F   G
Breaking me and taking my quarters
Bb   C   F   G
Bashing in my face with a crowbar
Bb   C   F   G
Kicking me and pushing me over
Bb   C   G   Bb
Now they see my blood on their sneakers
G

Bb   C   F   G
You can't win me, I can't be beat
Bb   C   A   F
I won't hurt you, unless you cheat
Bb   C   F   G
You can't see me behind the screen
Bb   C   A   F
I'm half human and half machine
