

Lenay - Sick

Tom: C

Here I am, once again
 And I don't know where to begin
 But I think I got it wrong
 Things aren't so black and white
 As I thought all my life
 Still not sure if I, got it right

Still you call out my name
 When everything's falling
 But you're still the same
 Day after day

I'm so sick of falling
 Are you sick of me?
 Why aren't you sick of me?

(Am C G Dm)
 So I stay, and I wait
 And I make the same mistakes
 So I'm here once again
 I just want to feel safe and loved and that everything is fine
 But when I look above and pray I can't decide

Still you call out my name
 When everything's falling
 But you're still the same
 Day after day
 I'm so sick of falling
 Are you sick of me?
 Why aren't you sick of me?

Know I've made some mistakes sometimes, but you know, you know
 Still you know and you call me ?mine? and you know, you know
 (X2)

Still you call out my name
 When everything's falling
 But you're still the same
 Day after day
 I'm so sick of falling
 Are you sick of me?
 Why aren't you sick of me?
