

Leonard Cohen - One Of Us Cannot Be Wrong

Tom: D
Intro: A

A Bm D A
I lit a thin green candle to make you jealous of me

E
But the room just filled up with mosquitos, they heard that my body was free

A Gbm Dbm D
Then I took the dust of a long sleepless night and I put it in your little shoe

A G A Bm
And then I confess that I tortured the dress that you wore for the world to look through

I showed my heart to the doctor, he said I just have to quit
Then he wrote himself a prescription and your name was mentioned in it
Then he locked himself in a library shelf with the details of our honeymoon

And I hear from the nurse that he's gotten much worse and his practice is all in a ruin

I heard of a saint who had loved you, so I studied all night in his school

He taught that the duty of lovers is to tarnish the golden rule

And just when I was sure that his teachings were pure he drowned himself in the pool

His body is gone but back here on the lawn his spirit continues to drool

An Eskimo showed me a movie he'd recently taken of you
The poor man could hardly stop shivering, his lips and his fingers were blue

I suppose that he froze when the wind took your clothes and I guess he just never got warm

But you stand there so nice, in your blizzard of ice, oh please let me come into the storm

La, la ,la ,la...
