

Leonard Cohen - Seems So Long Ago, Nancy

Tom: A
Intro: Bm Gb Bm

Bm Gb Bm
It seems so long ago,
Gbm Db7 Gbm
nancy was alone,
A Bm
looking ate the late late show
A E A
Through a semi-precious stone.
Db7 Gbm
in the house of honesty
D A
Her father was on trial,
E Gbm
in the house of mystery
Db D
There was no one at all,
A E Gbm Gbm
There was no one at all.

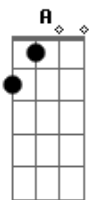

Bm Gb Bm
It seems so long ago,
Gbm Db7 Gbm
none of us were strong;
A Bm
nancy wore green stockings
A E A
And she slept with everyone.
Db7 Gbm
She never said she'd wait for us
D A
Although she was alone,
E Gbm
i think she fell in love for us
Db D
In nineteen sixty one,
A E Gbm Gbm
In nineteen sixty one.

Bm Gb Bm
It seems so long ago,
Gbm Db7 Gbm
nancy was alone,
A Bm
A forty five beside her head,
an open telephone.
Db7 Gbm
we told her she was beautiful,
D A
We told her she was free
E Gbm
But none of us would meet her in Db D
The house of mystery,
A E Gbm Gbm
The house of mystery.

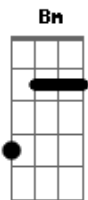

Bm Gb
And now you look around you,
Gbm Db7 Gbm
See her everywhere,
A Bm
many use her body,
many comb her hair.
Db7 Gbm
in the hollow of the night
D A
When you are cold and numb
E Gbm
You hear her talking freely then,
Db D
She's happy that you've come,
A E Gbm
She's happy that you've come.

Final: Bm E A
