

Sondre Lerche - Almighty Moon

Tom: C
Intro: Am A Am Am7 (2x)

Well it's all over now. Oh, I'm not gonna beg to differ
So unfit to be lounging with her
You've been running around now, running around, running around

But you made your mind up, and you couldn't believe your luck
now

How the chemicals combined and still how You were running around now, running around, running around now now now

So go and fake on more mistake, and choose to be so cruel
I can't defend myself against almighty moon

Oh, it's all over now, it was peachy for a while, then bitter
The start was flawless but you'll end a quitter

Always running away now, running away, running away

When you sweat the truth out, little something pulls you right back in trust

Little nothings to be pulling tricks just
To keep you running around now, running around, running around
now now now

So go and fake on more mistake, and choose to be so cruel
I can't defend myself against almighty moon

Am A Am Am7 2x

Wake up, wake up, you made your last mistake, the world can be so cruel

I won't abide the tide of your almighty moon
My old almighty moon, i know your tricks too well, now please!
