

Lewis Watson - Another Song

tom:

Intro: Em Em G D
Em Em G D

Em
You and I
Fell one from the moon
But landed as two

Em
You and I
A colour so true
With a chorus of blue

C
Every verse I write after every fight
Em D Bm
Do you feel the words deepen, the hurt creep in
C
Every time we touch is it still a rush
Em D
Do you feel my heart beating, my love leaving

G
I'll write another song
D
To right another wrong
Em D
Cause I don't want you to leave

G
I'll play it on repeat
D
Until you sing with me
Em D
So we don't have to believe
C
That maybe we're not built for this love
D
Maybe we're just not good enough

G D
And if I play it wrong
Em D C
I'll write another song my love
D Em7
I'll write another song for you

( Em7 Em7 G D )
( Em7 Em7 G D )

Em7
You and I
Were born evergreen
But we're losing our leaves

Em
You and I
A zephyr so sweet
That stole you from me

C
Every verse I write after every fight
Em D Bm
Do you feel the words deepen, the hurt creep in
C
Every time we touch is it still a rush
Em D
Do you feel my heart beating, my love leaving
G
I'll write another song
D
To right another wrong
Em D
Cause I don't want you to leave

G
I'll play it on repeat
D
Until you sing with me
Em D
So we don't have to believe
C
That maybe we're not built for this love
D
Maybe we're just not good enough

G D
And if I play it wrong
Em D C
I'll write another song my love
D Em7
I'll write another song for you

( Em7 Em7 G D )
( Em7 Em7 G D )

Em
You and I
Fell one from the moon
But landed as two
