

Lexi Jayde - Someday

tom:
[Primeira Parte]
Crazy how you think you know somebody
Every little freckle on their body
It's crazy how... We're strangers now
Funny how I still hear from your family
I wonder if it's 'cause they're feeling guilty
It's crazy how... You're not my future now
[Pré-Refrão]
It hurts but I know
[Refrão]
Someday I'll wake up and won't waste my makeup
Someday I'll wake up and laugh about the breakup
I'll be dancing on my own
Sipping coffee, staying home
I'll be singing like I always do
Someday I'll wake up and not think about
[Segunda Parte]
How you think you know somebody
The only person you look for at a party
It's crazy how... You're all I think about
Called you first before my friends
Told you all of my regrets

You're the only one I needed when it was 3 AM
It's crazy how... I can't call you now
[Pré-Refrão]
It hurts but I know
[Refrão]
Someday I'll wake up and won't waste my makeup
Someday I'll wake up and laugh about the breakup
I'll be dancing on my own
Sipping coffee, staying home
I'll be singing like I always do
Someday I'll wake up and not think about
Where you are
Or who you're with
Or if you're sad
Do you reminisce?
Where you go, or who you kiss
Are you happier?
What do you miss?
[Final]
Someday I'll wake up
Someday I'll wake up and not think about
You
