

Lhasa de Sela - Love Came Here

Tom: A

m

There is no end to this story
 No final blow or glory
 Love came here and never left

Now that my heart is open
 It can't be closed or broken

Love came here and never left

Now I'll have to live with loving you forever
 Although our days of living life together
 Of living life to-gether are over
 There's nothing here to throw away
 I came to you in light of day
 And love came here and never left
 And love came here and never left
