

Lifehouse - Stanley Climbfall

Tom: C

Afinação: um semitom abaixo

D
quiet
A
seems like an honest world
D
you're begging for the beggars' bread when the money's out
D
stand, climb, and fall
A
you carry the world
D
can't carry your own

D
when the world is falling down
and another breaks and another falls
D
for losers always make the winners' day

D
stand, climb, and fall
A
you carry the weight
D
can't carry it all

Em Am
are you falling
F G
are you faking
Em Am
are you healing
F G
are you breaking
Em Am
am I burning
F G
am I only melting
Em Am F E
these diamonds in the making

C G
and I'm at the end of myself
F G Am Am

anything you want
C
and nothing seems to satisfy me
F G Am Am
take anything you want

A
a sound you know so well
D
you're living just to make it through another day
D
stand, climb, and fall
D
you carry the world
can't carry your own

Em Am
are you falling
F G
are you faking
Em Am
are you healing
F G
are you breaking
Em Am
am I burning
F G
am I only melting
Em Am F E
these diamonds in the making

C G
and I'm at the end of myself
F G Am Am
anything you want
C G
and nothing seems to satisfy me
F G Am Am
take anything you want
F G Am Am
take anything you want
F G Am Am
take anything you want
