

Lifehouse - The Beginning

Tom: C
Intro: Eb - C - F - Ab

Eb
 tainted
 C
 has our love gone cold
 F Ab
 in a place that's bitter and broken
 Eb C
 tasted of a world I know
 F Ab
 surely there must be something better G
 something forever

Chorus:

 hello
 Ab
 from the world below
 F
 I'm watching the sun burning
 as the road is slowly turning
 well I know
 Ab
 that in letting go
 F
 I'm learning how to live
 through a life I have to give

II:

(do the 1st verse chords)
walking

past the city lights
 silence can be so disturbing you'll find me standing in the night the stars never seem so unending
 so unending

Ab
 but we painted
 whitewashed everything
 C Ab
 when all that remains are

shadows of the stains
 tell me

Ab
 where did we go wrong
 can we just move on

(do the Chorus chords)
 hello
 from the world below
 while I'm watching the sun burning
 as the road is slowly turning
 when I know
 that in letting go
 I'm learning how to live
 through a life I have to give

(do the Chorus chords)
 hello
 to the world below
 while I'm watching the world spinning this night seems so unending well I'll follow
 to a place I know
 that's only the beginning
 start over after ending
