I've got blinded by the lights of the guys in the city
 I could easily shut my eyes
 I could easily find my sleep
 Within less jazz around the block
 Nothing to doubt nothing to hide
 You were blinded by the lights
 I've got lost in the city

00000000000000000000
 We'll never go back to California
 00000000000000000000

00000000000000000000
 We'll never go back to California
 I've been trying to find a smell
 It's not in the country that I miss
 I wanted to grab you hand
 It was holding on to something
 The woman stared into my eyes

I know there was nothing she could find
 I thought it would be nice if you promess we'll be fine

00000000
 We'll never go back to California
 00000000

We'll never go back to California
 00000000

We'll never go back to California
 00000000

We'll never go back to California

I'm a liar in a cheat

I know time is on my side

I've got plenty of years to waste

I've got plenty of love to give

Why do I care to spare another life time by the sea

If you're standing there with me then it's where I want to be
