

Lily Allen - Chinese

Tom: F

I see you from the sky
 And I wonder how long it will take me to get home
 I wait for an hour or so at the carousel
 I have a cigarette to pass the time
 Cause the traffic's hell
 (Dm C Bb Bb7)

Refrão:
 I don't want anything more
 Than to see your face when you open the door
 You'll make me beans on toast and a nice cup of tea
 And we'll get a Chinese and watch TV
 Tomorrow we'll take the dog for a walk
 And in the afternoon then maybe we'll talk
 I'll be exhausted so I'll probably sleep
 And we'll get a Chinese and watch TV

Verso 2:
 You wipe the tears from my eye
 And you say that all that it takes is a phone call
 I cry at the thought of being alone and then
 I wonder how long it will take til I'm home again

(Dm C Bb Bb7)

Refrão:
 I don't want anything more
 Than to see your face when you open the door
 You'll make me beans on toast and a nice cup of tea
 And we'll get a Chinese and watch TV
 Tomorrow we'll take the dog for a walk
 And in the afternoon then maybe we'll talk
 I'll be exhausted so I'll probably sleep
 And we'll get a Chinese and watch TV

Verso 3:
 I know it doesn't seem so fair
 But I'll send you a postcard when I get there

Refrão:
 I don't want anything more
 Than to see your face when you open the door
 You'll make me beans on toast and a nice cup of tea
 And we'll get a Chinese and watch TV
 Tomorrow we'll take the dog for a walk
 And in the afternoon then maybe we'll talk
 I'll be exhausted so I'll probably sleep
 And we'll get a Chinese and watch TV
