Lily Allen - Everyone's At It

Tom: F

Intro: Bb Dm

Dm Am

I don't know much but I know this for certain
That is the sun poking its head round the curtain
Now please can we leave, I'd like to go to bed now
It's not just the sun that is hurting my head now
I'm not trying to say that I'm smelling of roses
But when will we tire of putting shit up our noses
I don't like staying up, staying up past the sunlight
It's meant to be fun and this just doesn't feel right.

Bb Dm

Why can't we all, all just be honest
Admit to ourselves that everyone's on it
From grown politicians to young adolescents

How can we start to tackle the problem
If you don't put your hands up
And admit that you're on them
The kids are in danger
They're all getting habits
Because from what I can see
Everyone's at it
Everyone's at it
Everyone's at it
Everyone's at it

Dm Am

I get involved but I'm not advocating
Got an opinion, yeah, you're well up for slating
So you've got a prescription and that makes it legal
I find the excuses overwhelmingly feeble
You go to the doctor. you need pills to sleep in Well if you can convince him

Then I guess that's not cheating
So your daughter's depressed
We'll get her straight on the Prozac
But little do you know
She already takes crack

Bb Dm

They're all getting habits
Because from what I can see
Everyone's at it
Everyone's at it
Everyone's at it
Everyone's at it
