

Lily Allen - Littlest Things

Tom: G
Intro: Am D G Em
Am Gb7 B

Em Am D
Sometimes I find myself sitting back and reminiscing
Especially when I have to watch other people kissing Em
And I remember when you started calling me your Mrs Gb7
All the play fighting B
All the flirtatious disses Em
I'd tell you sad stories about my childhood D
I dunno why I trusted you but I knew that I could G Em
We'd spend the whole weekend Am
Lying in our own dirt Am

I was just so happy Gb7
In your boxers and your t-shirt

Am D G Em
Dreams, dreams of when we had just started things
Am Gb7 B
Dreams of you and me
Am D
It seems, it seems

G Em
That I can't shake those memories
Am Gb7 B
I wonder if you have the same dreams too

Em Am D
The littlest things that take me there
I know it sounds lame but it's so true G Em
I know it's not right but it seems unfair Am Gb7
That thing's are reminding me of you B Em
Sometimes I wish we could just pretend Am D
Even if only for one weekend G Em
So come on Gb7

Tell me

B
Is this the end?

Em Am D
Drinkin' tea in bed, watchin' DVD's
When I discovered all your dirty, grotty magazines G Em
You'd take me out shopping Am
And all we'd buy is trainers Gb7
As if we ever needed anything to entertain us B Em
The first time that you introduced me to your friends Am D
And you could that tell I was nervous, so you held my hand G Em
When I was feeling down, you'd make that face you do Am Gb7
There's no-one in the world who could replace you B

Am D G Em
Dreams, dreams of when we had just started things
Am Gb7 B
Dreams of me and you
Am D
It seems, it seems

G Em
That I can't shake those memories
Am Gb7 B
I wonder if you feel the same way too

Em Am D
The littlest things that take me there
I know it sounds lame but it's so true G Em
I know it's not right but it seems unfair Am Gb7
That thing's are reminding me of you B Em
Sometimes I wish we could just pretend Am D
