

Limp Bizkit - Bring The Noise

Tom: G

Transcribed by: HoLyCoSt

Not sure about this, I just looked at someone else's tabbed version, and it didn't sound too good, Chris Hemenway, I just listened to how he played it and defined it some more. Some of it IS wrong, such as the chorus, so help me out, i think I got kinda close to the right chorus, but if you can help me, e-mail me telling me the changes so i know how to play it right, my guitar is currently tuned down a whole step, i'm not sure if you can play it standard, well here you go:

Verse:

it's not a real slide, in the song he does a kind of slide, just listen to the song, you'll get it, and i know for sure that this is the right verse

Chorus:

Not sure about this part, this is the chorus, it sounds about right, not sure though, sounds like it could be different, repeat all this as needed (might be other way around, like one of the 533 and two 000's, i dunno it's late in the morning and i can't tell)

um... Get The Fuck Up Part:

until you get to the: "GET THE FUCK UP!" part, then do this above Ok this part i know is wrong, i have the right idea, not the right notes, same with the chorus, the notes might be wrong, but i have the idea, so if anyone wants to take this on, go ahead, just e-mail me and let me know when you send the tab in so i can look at it,
