I'm stuck in this bed you made along with a sinking feeling

Gbm E
You gotta get it inside, you push it back down, you push it back down

Gbm E
You'll never get it inside, push it back down
A D
Blackout, blood in your eye...

Verso 2:

You say that it's not your fault and swear that I am mistaken
You said it's not what it seems, no remorse for the trust you're breaking
You run but then back you fall, suffocate in the mess you're making
You can't get enough, you take and take and take and take and take

F it, are you listening?

Refrão:

N00!!
You gotta get it inside, you push it back down, you push it back down
N00!!
You'll never get it inside, push it back down, you push it back down
N00!!
You gotta get it inside, you push it back down, you push it back down
N00!!
You'll never get it inside, push it back down
Blackout, blood in your eye
