[Primeira Parte]

Now, sometimes these thoughts

In my head speak so loud

Every little thing that

I think about just built

On top of the pain and doubt

Even though I wanna just let it out

I try to act like I don't mind it

Try to keep my mouth so quiet

But sittin' there in my silence

Just seems to amplify it

When I thought that keepin'

This inside would make it better

I never thought that I would

End up ruining it forever

But everytime I think

I got everything put back together

I end up making more regrets

Making more regrets

[Refrão]

Falling from grace

I watch it all come apart

Knowing I could've changed

It all from the start

Fighting myself, I always lose

Fighting myself, I always lose

[Segunda Parte]

I didn't want you to think

I'm worn out so easily

I wish I'd held it in, so you never

Knew what built up inside of me

Now, I don't know how it overflows

Spill out unwillingly

But now, everything that I learned

To hate came out for you to see

I don't want you to promise you can

Change everything and make it better

'Cause you can bet, I'm gonna

End up ruining it forever

And everytime you think, you

Got everything put back together

I end up making more regrets

Making more regrets

[Refrão]

Falling from grace

Knowing I could've changed

It all from the start

Fighting myself, I always lose

Fighting myself, I always lose

Falling from grace

I watch it all come apart

Knowing I could've changed

It all from the start

Fighting myself, I always lose

(Dbm)

[Ponte]

I can't run with this

Weight on my back

I can't see 'cause

I'm focused on the past

I can't breathe

I need to break free

From the anger that is

Constantly inside of me

I can't run with this

Weight on my back

I can't see 'cause

I'm focused on the past

I can't breathe

I need to break free

From the anger that is
