Linkin Park - Valentines Day

Tom: F

```
   Dm                            F   C
  My insides all turn to ash, so slow.
Dm                              F   C
  And blew away as I collapsed, so cold.
Dm                           F     C
A black wind took them away, from sight.
Dm                           F     C
  And held the darkness over day, that night.

         Bb                  C
And the clouds above move closer,
         F             C
Looking so dissatisfied.
         Bb                    C                  (Dm )
But the heartless wind kept blowing and blowing.

Dm                                F       C
  I used to be my own protection, but not now.
Dm                                 F    C
  'Cause my path has lost direction, somehow.
Dm                           F     C
A black wind took you away, from sight.
Dm                           F     C
  And held the darkness over day, that night.

         Bb                  C
And the clouds above move closer,
         F             C
Looking so dissatisfied.
         Bb                  C
And the ground below grew colder,
         F             C
As they put you down inside.
         Bb              C               (Dm )
But the heartless wind kept blowing, blowing.

( Dm F C )

Bb
So now you're gone,
C
And I was wrong.
F                  Am
I never knew what it was like,
Bb                 C
To be alone

         Dm
On a Valentine's Day,
         F                 C
On a Valentine's Day,
         Dm
On a Valentine's Day,
         F                 C
On a Valentine's Day,

         Dm
On a Valentine's Day.
                  [I used to be my own protection,]
         F                 C
On a Valentine's Day
                  [But not now.]
         Dm
On a Valentine's Day
                  ['Cause my mind has lost direction,]
         F                 C
On a Valentine's Day
                  [Somehow.]
