

Lionel Richie - Just Go

Tom: C

It'd be so nice,
 If you didn't have to feel so lonely
 It'd be so nice,
 If I could sneak you for a moment
 I know you like to get away, go away, far away
 To a place where there's just us two
 Got a busy day, everyday, but not today
 'Cause I'm here to take that stress from you
 So you can just chill, and clear your head
 And let me do everything for you
 'Cause you deserve it,
 Prepare your meal, and make your bed
 Willing to switch places with you,
 'Cause you are so worth it

I just want us to go, (go, go)
 Drop everything and just go (go, go)
 I just want us to go, (go, go)
 Drop everything and just go (go, go)

How would you like to sail away in the Bahamas?
 (Just you and me girl)

So far out in the sea where nobody can find you
 (Just the end of the World)

'Cause there is no rush
 For you to come back and face the rain
 'Cause there is plenty sunshine where I pickin' you
 And I'm here to reduce the pain

I know you like to get away, go away, far away
 To a place where there's just us two
 Got a busy day, everyday, but not today
 'Cause I'm here to take that stress from you

So you can just chill, and clear your head
 And let me do everything for you
 'Cause you deserve it,
 Prepare your meal, and make your bed
 Willing to switch places with you,
 'Cause you are so worth it

I just want us to go, (go, go)
 Drop everything and just go (go, go)
 I just want us to go, (go, go)
 Drop everything and just go (go, go)

Just imagine when you're tired and laying by my side, and Sippin' on some wine while I stand a massage
 And releasing all your tension I couldn't have a better time
 And my job is to keep my baby smiling

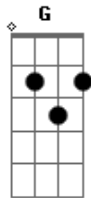

So you can just chill, and clear your head
 And let me do everything for you
 'Cause you deserve it,
 Prepare your meal, and make your bed
 Willing to switch places with you,
 'Cause you are so worth it

I just want us to go, (go, go)
 Drop everything and just go (go, go)
 I just want us to go, (go, go)
 Drop everything and just go (go, go)
 I just want us to go, (go, go)
 Drop everything and just go (go, go)
 I just want us to go, (go, go)
 Drop everything and just go (go, go)
