

Lizzy McAlpine - Erase Me (feat. Jacob Collier)

tom:

Why am I awake?
Nails on the floor and soot on my tongue
I don't know his name, but I still taste the rum

Nothing there but skin
Skeletons crawl on the ceiling, they know
That him and his aftershave hit like a drug

(Gbm7 Gbm6)

[Refrão]

Don't answer me, I'm callin' just to hear you scream
And you're fadin', but he feels like you in between
I've said too much, in and out of wantin' us
Now you're fadin' and I wonder who will erase me?
Who will erase me?

(Gbm7 Gbm6)

[Segunda Parte]

Race you to the end
My innocence waits like it desperately knows
That I'll crash if I don't let you go

[Refrão]

Don't answer me, I'm callin' just to hear you scream
And you're fadin', but he feels like you in between
I've said too much, in and out of wantin' us
Now you're fadin' and I wonder who will erase me?

[Ponte]

Erase me?
Erase me?
And I wonder who will erase me?

[Refrão]

Don't answer me, I'm callin' just to hear you scream
And you're fadin', but he feels like you in between
I've said too much, in and out of wantin' us
Now you're fadin' and I wonder who will erase
Don't answer me, I'm callin' just to hear you scream
And you're fadin', but he feels like you in between
I've said too much, in and out of wantin' us
Now you're fadin' and I wonder who will erase me?
Oh, who will erase me?
