There's a Port on a Western bay
 And it serves a hundred ships a day
 Lonely sailors pass the time away
 And talk about their homes

And there's a girl in this harbor town
 And she works layin' whiskey down
 They say Brandy fetch another round
 She serves them whiskey and wine

The sailors say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl)
 What a good wife you would be (such a fine girl)
 Your eyes could steal a sailor from the sea (do,do...)

Brandy wears a braided chain
 Made of finest silver from the north of Spain
 A locket that bears the name
 Of the man that Brandy loves

He came on a summer's day

Bringing gifts from far away
 But he made it clear he couldn't stay
 No harbor was his home

The sailors say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl)
 What a good wife you would be (such a fine girl)
 But my life my lover my lady is the sea (do,do...)

Yeah Brandy used to watch his eyes
 When he told his sailor's stories
 She could feel the ocean fall and rise
 She saw it's raging glory
 But he had always told the truth
 Lord he was an honest man
 And Brandy does her best to understand (do,do...)
 At night when the bars close down
 Brandy walks through a silent town
 And loves a man who's not around
 She still can hear him say she hears him say

She hears him say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl)
 What a good wife you would be (such a fine girl)
 But my life my lover my lady is the sea (do,do...)

Say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl)
 What a good wife you would be (such a fine girl)
 But my life my lover my lady is the sea (do,do...)
