

Lorde - Sober II

```
Tom: B
                                                                  divine nights
                                                                   C
                                                                         Am D
                                                                  Whoa-oh
 (com acordes na forma de G )
Capostraste na 4º casa
Intro: Em G C Am D
                                                                  They'll talk about us, all the lovers, how we kissed and \mathsf{Em} \quad \mathsf{G} \quad \mathsf{C} \quad \mathsf{Am} \quad \mathsf{D} killed each other
                                                                   C
                                                                         Am Whoa-oh
[Versol
                                                                                 Em
You asked if I was feeling it, I'm psycho high They'll talk about us, and discover, how we kissed and killed each other
Know you won't remember in the morning when I speak my minds
                                                                   C Am
                                                                  Whoa-oh
Lights are on and they've gone home but who am I?
                                                                  Em G C Am D
Oh how fast the evening passes, cleaning up the champagne
                                                                  [Outro]
glasses
[Refrão]
                                                                     We told you this was melodrama
  We told you this was melodrama
                                                                     You wanted something that we offered
Oh how fast the evening passes, cleaning up the champagne
glasses
                                                                     We told you this was melodrama
  Our only wish is melodrama
                                                                     You wanted something that we offered
Oh how fast the evening passes, cleaning up the champagne
                                                                     We told you this was \operatorname{melodrama}
                                                                     You wanted something that we offered
[Ponte]
Em G C Am D
                                                                     We told you this was melodrama
                                                                     You wanted something that we offered
And the terror, and the horror, when we wonder why we bother
           Am
Whoa-oh, whoa-oh, oh
                                                                     We told you this was melodrama
       Fm
And the terror, and the horror, gotta wonder why we bother
                                                                     We told you this was melodrama
           \mathsf{Am}
Whoa-oh, whoa-oh
                                                                     We told you this was melodrama
       Fm
                                                                                               Αm
All the glamour, and the trauma, and the fucking melodrama
                                                                     We told you this was melodrama
Whoa-oh, whoa-oh
                                                                     We told you this was melodrama
All the gunfights, and the limelights, and the hope we stick
                                                                     We told you this was melodrama
```

Acordes

