

Lorde - Stoned At The Nail Salon

tom:
 [Primeira Parte]
 Got a wishbone drying on the windowsill in my kitchen
 Just in case I wake up and realize I've chosen wrong
 I love this life that I have
 The vine hanging over the door
 And the dog who comes when I call
 But I wonder sometimes what I'm missing

[Pré-Refrão]
 But my hot blood's been burning for so many summers now
 It's time to cool it down, wherever that leads [Refrão]
 'Cause all the beautiful girls they will fade like the roses
 And all the times they will change, it'll all come around
 I don't know
 Maybe I'm just stoned at the nail salon
 Maybe I'm just stoned at th? nail salon again
 ( F C G F C G )

[Segunda Parte]
 Got a memory of waitin' in your bed wearing only my earrings
 We'd go dancing all over the landmines under our town
 But the sun has to rise
 When it does, we'll divide up the papers
 Two former hell-raisers

Acordes

I'm still crazy for you, babe
 [Pré-Refrão]
 But my hot blood's been burning for so many summers now
 It's time to cool it down, wherever that leads
 [Refrão]
 'Cause all the music you loved at sixteen you'll grow out of
 And all the times they will change, it'll all come around
 I don't know
 Maybe I'm just
 Maybe I'm just stoned at th? nail salon again
 [Ponte]

Ohhhhhh, make it good
 Ohhhhhh, make it good
 I'd ride and I'd ride on the carousel
 'Round and 'round forever if I could
 But it's time to cool it down
 Whatever that means
 Spend all the evenings you can with the people who raised you
 'Cause all the times they will change, it'll all come around [Refrão Final]

I don't know
 Maybe I'm just stoned at the nail salon
 Maybe I'm just stoned at th? nail salon again
 [Final]
