I'm a princess cut from marble

Smoother than a storm

And the scars that mark my body

They're silver and gold

My blood is a flood of rubies, precious stones

It keeps my veins hot

The fire's found a home in me

I move through town, I'm quiet like a fire

And my necklace is of rope

I tie it and untie

And now people talk to me but nothing ever hits home

People talk to me and all the voices just burn holes

I'll done with it, oh

This is the start of how it all ends

They used to shout my name, now they whisper it

I'm speeding up, and this is the red, orange yellow flicker beat

Sparkling up my heart

We're at the start, the colours disappear

I never watch the stars, there's so much down here

Beat, beat, beat

So I just try keep up with the red, orange yellow flicker beat

Sparkling up my heart

I dream all year but they're not the sweet kind

And the shivers move down my shoulder

Blades in double time

And now people talk to me, I'm slipping out of reach now

People talk to me and all their faces blur

But I got my fingers laced together and I made a little prison

And I'm locking up everyone who ever laid a finger on me

I'll done with it, oh

This is the start of how it all ends

They used to shout my name, now they whisper it

I'm speeding up, and this is the red, orange yellow flicker beat

Sparkling up my heart

We're at the start, the colours disappear

I never watch the stars, there's so much down here

So I just try keep up with the red, orange yellow flicker beat

Sparkling up my heart

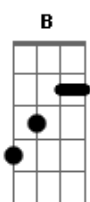

And this is the red, orange yellow flicker beat

Sparkling up my heart

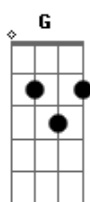

And this is the red, orange yellow flicker beat

Beat, beat, beat
