Verse 1

A wise man was telling stories to me about the places he had been to and the things that had seen
 Chorus
 A quiet voice is singing something to me
 An age old song 'bout the brave in this land here of the free,
 One time one night in America

Verse 2

A lady dressed in white with the man she loves
 Standing along the side of their pick up truck
 A shot rang out in the night
 Just when everything seemed right
 Another headline written down in America

Verse 3

The guy that lived next door in three o five took the kids to the park and disappeared 'bout half past nine
 Who will ever know how much she loved them so
 That dark night alone in America

Chorus
 Verse 4

Four small boys playing ball in the parking lot
 A preacher, a teacher, and the other became a cop
 A car skidded into the rain
 Making the last little one a saint

One more light goes out in America
 Verse 5
 A young girl tosses a coin in the wishing well
 She hopes for a heaven while for her there's just this hell
 She gave away her life to become somebody's wife
 Another wish unanswered in America

 People having so much faith
 Die too soon while all the rest come late
 We write a song that no one sings
 On a cold black stone where a lasting peace will finally bring
