

Lost And Found Music Studios - Miss You

Tom: F

You say that you gotta go, gotta be
 You say it's not fair to you, fair to me
 I know in my heart I've got nothing to prove
 This question mark, I can't answer it for you

So I'll set you free, like a bird in the breeze
 And I'll set you free, fly away, spread your wings
 If you love somebody let them go
 If they come back home that's how you know
 I'm gonna miss you, really really miss you

So I'll let go and set you free
 And hope that you'll come back to me
 I'm going to miss you, really really miss you

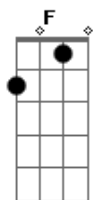

I miss you face, photographs aren't the same
 I miss the sound of your laugh every day
 But loneliness and wondering
 Won't stop my heart from waiting
 Cause I know you're coming back

So I'll set you free, like a bird in the breeze
 And I'll set you free, fly away, spread your wings
 If you love somebody let them go
 If they come back home that's how you know
 I'm gonna miss you, really really miss you

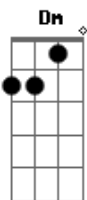

So I'll let go and set you free
 And hope that you'll come back to me
 I'm going to miss you, really really miss you
 I'm going to miss you, really really miss you
 I'm going to miss you, really really miss you

So I'll set you free, like a bird in the breeze
 And I'll set you free, fly away, spread your wings
 If you love somebody let them go
 If they come back home that's how you know
 I'm gonna miss you, really really miss you
 So I'll let go and set you free
 And hope that you'll come back to me
 I'm going to miss you, really really miss you
