Tom: G

Intro: Em F Em G F B7

When I was ^{Em}seventeen it was a ^Fvery good year
 It was a ^{Em}very good year
 For ^Gsmall town girls and ^Fsoft summer nights
 We'd ^Ehide from the lights
 On the ^Dvillage green when I was ^Eseventeen
 When I was ^{Em}twentyone, it was a ^Fvery good year
 It was a ^{Em}very good year
 For ^Gcity girls who lived up the ^Fstair
 With ^Eperfumed hair

That came ^Dundone, when I was ^Etwenty-one
 When I was ^{Em}thirty-five it was a ^Fvery good year
 It was a ^{Em}very good year
 For ^Gblue blooded girls of ^Findependant means
 We'd ^Eride in limousines
 Their ^Dchauffeurs would drive when I was ^Ethirty-five
 But now the ^{Em}days are short, I'm in the ^Fautumn of the year
 And now I ^{Em}think of my life
 As ^Gvintage wine from the ^Fold kegs
 From the ^Ebrim to the ^Ddregs
 It ^Epoured sweet and clear; it was a ^Dvery good year
