

Louis Tomlinson - Headline

tom:

Intro: Am D G C

[Primeira Parte]

Sometimes, I wake up and I hear you through the silence
 You let your pride hide all your beauty and your kindness
 So fast to judge in error, you thought you knew me better
 So quick to kill forever

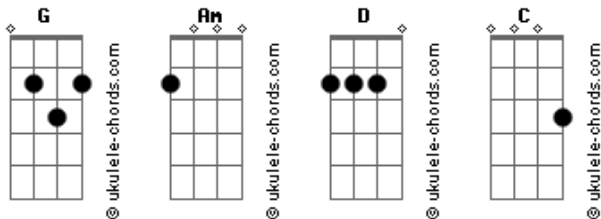

[Refrão]

You used to read me like a headline
 So many reasons now you're not mine
 Maybe, if you'd taken more time
 I'd still be the one you wanna talk to every night, oh
 If you got in my head
 You wouldn't be scared of what you'd find
 You used to read me like a headline
 Oh, that's the reason now you're not mine anymore

( Am D G C )
 ( Am D G C )

[Primeira Parte]

Acordes

You spent your summer workin' for your education
 While I was runnin' after dreams that kept us waitin' (Oh)
 You never told me never
 I guess I never knew we'd have the shortest forever
 I thought I could, but I can't forget you

[Refrão]

You used to read me like a headline
 So many reasons now you're not mine
 Maybe, if you'd taken more time
 I'd still be the one you wanna talk to every night, oh
 If you got in my head
 You wouldn't be scared of what you'd find
 You used to read me like a headline?
 Oh, that's the reason now you're not mine anymore
 ( Am D )

You used to read me like a headline
 You used to read me like a headline

Sometimes, I wake up and I wish you were beside me