

Lovejoy - Warsaw

tom:

Intro: Ebm Bb B Gb

[Primeira Parte]

She's broken up with him inside her head

She's just waiting for the moment, that precious moment, to let him know

Sharing make-up with a stranger in unfamiliar beds

It's good for me, I'm sure, I'm sure it's good for me

[Pré-Refrão]

I thought I'd do anything you ask of me, that's sure

What for? My fingers pressed until they're sore, it's so

You said It's crazy we used to do this sober

You wake up and thank God it's over

Just, please, just let me go

[Refrão]

(Warsaw) The place that she got her first kiss

Is now a vaccination clinic

(Warsaw) Sat around a new Smeg fridge

Singing: We're, oh, so apathetic!

(Warsaw) Smiling, laughing, watching movies

Lying, spread-out floral duvet

(Warsaw) Looks at you with earnest grace

And says: The fuck it is we're doing?

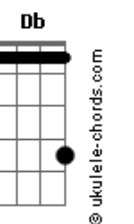

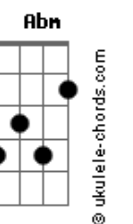

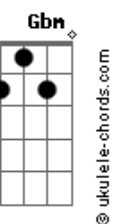

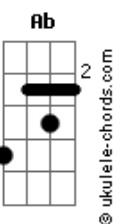

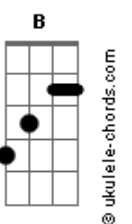

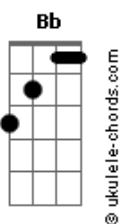

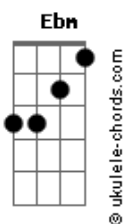

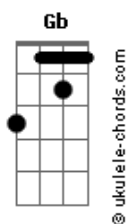

[Segunda Parte]

I hate to say I told you, but your habits wreck your head

If not for fear of deep vein thrombosis

I'd be there too, I guess

Acordes

She just smiles at me, then waits a bit
Like guillotine, she says
Sometimes home is a cigarette
You're too straight-edge to get it

[Pré-Refrão]

I'd do anything you ask of me, that's sure
What for?
My fingers pressed until they're sore, it's so

You said
It's crazy we used to do this sober
You wake up and thank God it's over
Just, please, just let me go

[Final]

She hopes to God that I just choke
She hopes to God that I just choke
She hopes to God that I just choque
And it gets a little easier
She hopes to God that I just choke
She hopes to God that I just choque
She hopes to God that I just choke
