

LP - Switchblade

Tom: G

Do you remember
 Making love on the hill
 At the top of Topanga?
 Do you remember
 A handful of pills
 On a midnight adventure?
 I do, I do

Late in September
 It started to end
 And I felt you pretending
 I couldn't surrender
 Through the high and the low
 I just wanted to love you
 I do, I do

All of the hurt you've been hiding away
 Cuts me at once like a Switchblade
 And take every stab you can take
 And I'll give it to ya, I'll give it to ya

I always knew that you'd cut me some day
 I fell in love with a Switchblade
 And I know that you did the same
 So I'll give it to ya, give it to ya

We were electric
 We were wild, we were free
 And I thought that you meant it

It's hard to accept it
 That it's not meant to be
 But I'll never regret it
 I don't, I don't
 No, I don't, I don't

All of the hurt you've been hiding away
 Cuts me at once like a Switchblade
 And take every stab you can take
 And I'll give it to ya, I'll give it to ya
 I always knew that you'd cut me some day
 I fell in love with a Switchblade
 And I know that you did the same
 So I'll give it to ya, give it to ya

Long live the beautiful hearts
 Who find love and tear it apart
 Long live the beautiful hearts
 Who find love and tear it apart

All of the hurt you've been hiding away
 Cuts me at once like a Switchblade
 And take every stab you can take
 And I'll give it to ya, I'll give it to ya

I always knew that you'd cut me some day
 I fell in love with a Switchblade
 And I know that you did the same
 So I'll give it to ya, give it to ya
